

Problems for Children with Asthma

These things can sometimes make children with asthma wheeze or cough or make it hard for them to breathe.

You can find these problems at home, at school, outside, inside--just about anywhere!

Children with asthma can usually prevent an attack. They can stay away from the things that cause breathing problems and remember to take their asthma medicine.

