

Guide to

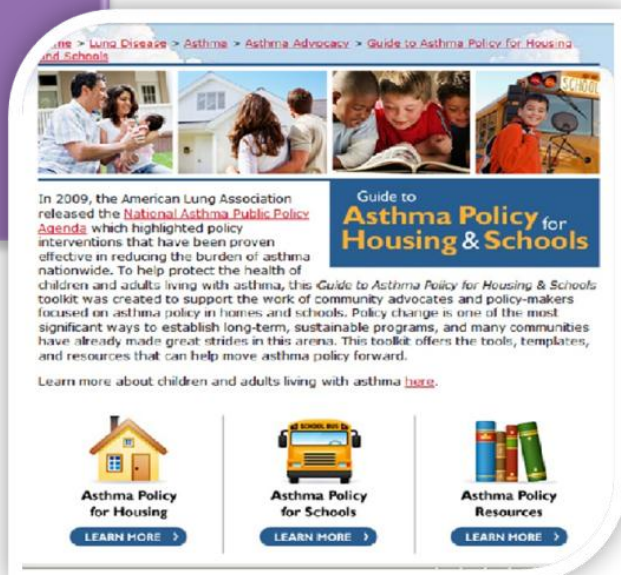

Asthma Policy for Housing & Schools

Help create asthma-friendly environments in your community! The American Lung Association has established policy recommendations and compiled resources aimed at community advocates to help reduce the burden of asthma nationwide for patients and families.

Learn more by visiting...

www.Lung.org/AsthmaPolicyGuide

Guide to Asthma Policy for Housing

- Learn how you can help landlords and tenants create healthy living environments for adults and children with asthma.

Guide to Asthma Policy for Schools

- Identify strategies to help support schools as they create an asthma-friendly learning environment for students, teachers, and staff.

Resources

- Visit links to organizations that support asthma policy work.
- Find additional tools that can support local policy activity.

This publication was developed under Cooperative Agreement No. XA-83461301-0 awarded by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. The views expressed in this document are solely those of the American Lung Association and EPA does not endorse any products or commercial services mentioned in this publication.